Clarification of News Report

We reply to your request for clarification on the news articles published entitled “Apollo Global Prepares for Follow-On Offering” posted in Philippine Daily Inquirer on February 8, 2021, it was reported in part that:

“Listed Apollo Global Capital (APL) is planning to raise as much as Pi billion through a follow-on offering this month to fund its latest offshore mining project.

The company, a subsidiary of JDVC Resources Corp., filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) a prospectus for the offering equivalent to P988 million. APL consultant Jun Herrera said the company was now awaiting the approval of the SEC.

The fresh capital will be used for its offshore mining project in Cagayan where APL was allowed by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to mine magnetite—a kind of iron-oxide used to manufacture steel.

Part of the proceeds would be used to purchase a 49-percent stake in Poet Blue Ocean Pte Ltd from which APL outsources its mining vessel, and to secure equipment and insurance for its operations, which were set to begin this month.
