A. GENERAL INFORMATION

Item 1. Date, time and place of meeting of security holders.

The Annual Meeting of the stockholders of APOLLO GLOBAL CAPITAL, INC. (Formerly: YEHEY! CORPORATION) (the "Company") will be held on 16 December 2022, Friday, 9:00 a.m., via remote communication/ online (Zoom).

The mailing address of the Company is at Unit 504, Galleria Corporate Center, EDSA corner Ortigas Ave., Brgy. Ugong Norte, Quezon City.

This Information Statement will be first sent or given to security holders on or around November 23, 2022.

Item 2. Dissenters' Right of Appraisal

Under Section 41 and 80 of the Revised Corporation Code, the following are the instances when a stockholder may exercise his appraisal right:

1. In case the Company decides to invest its funds in another corporation or business outside of its primary purpose;
2. In case any amendment to the articles of incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholder or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence;
3. In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets of the Company; and
4. In case of merger or consolidation.

In order that a dissenting stockholder may exercise his appraisal right, such dissenting stockholder must have voted against the proposed corporate action at the annual meeting. Within thirty (30) days after the date of the annual meeting at which meeting such stockholder voted against the corporate action, the dissenting stockholder shall make a written demand on the Company for the fair value of his shares which shall be agreed upon by the dissenting stockholder and the Company. If the proposed corporate action is implemented, the Company shall pay the dissenting stockholder upon surrendering the certificates of stock representing his shares the fair value thereof as of the day before the vote was taken. If the dissenting stockholder and the Company cannot agree on the fair value of the shares within sixty (60) days from the date of stockholders' approval of the corporate action, then the fair value of the shares shall be determined by three (3) disinterested persons, one (1) of whom shall be named by the dissenting stockholder, one (1) by the Company and a third to be named by the two (2) already chosen. The findings of the majority of the appraisers shall be final and their award shall be paid by the Company within thirty (30) days after such award is made. The procedure to be followed in exercising the appraisal right shall be in accordance with Sections 80 to 85 of the Revised Corporation Code.

In the instant case, the Dissenter's right of appraisal is not available as there is no action falling under any of the above instances.

Item 3. Interest of Certain Persons in or Opposition to Matters to be Acted Upon

None of the officers or directors or any of their associates has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in any of the matters to be acted upon in the stockholders' meeting.

None of the directors of the Company has informed the Company that he intends to oppose any action to be taken by the Company at the stockholders' meeting.

B. CONTROL AND COMPENSATION INFORMATION

Item 4. Voting Securities and Principal Holders Thereof

As of 30 September 2022, the Company's total outstanding shares entitled to vote consist of 292,686,349,297 outstanding common shares.

The record date for the purpose of determining the stockholders entitled to vote is 8 November 2022.

Stockholders entitled to vote are also entitled to cumulative voting in the election of directors. Section 23 of the Revised Corporation Code provides, in part, that: "...in stock corporations, stockholders entitled to vote shall have the right to vote the number of shares of stock standing in their own names in the stock books of the corporation at the time fixed in the bylaws or where the bylaws are silent, at the time of the election. The said stockholder may: (a) vote such number of shares for as many persons as there are directors to be elected; (b) cumulate said shares and give one (1) candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of the shares owned; or (c) distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as may be seen fit: Provided, That the total number of votes cast shall not exceed the number of shares owned by the stockholders as shown in the books of the corporation multiplied by the whole number of directors to be elected: Provided, however, That no delinquent stock shall be voted....."

Item 19. Voting Procedure

Manner of Voting

Please see page 2 of this Information Statement for the Guidelines And Procedures For Participating Via Remote Communication

The approval of items to be presented to the stockholders will require the vote of stockholders representing at least a majority of the issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote.

In all items for approval, except in the election of directors, each share of stock entitles its registered owner to one vote.

For the purpose of electing directors, a stockholder may vote such number of his shares for as many persons as there are directors to be elected or he may cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or he may distribute them in the same principle among as many candidates as he shall see fit. Unless required by law or demanded by a stockholder present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote thereat, voting need not be by ballot and will be done by show of hands. The Corporate Secretary will be responsible for counting votes based on the number of shares entitled to vote owned by the stockholders who are present or represented by proxies.

The Chairman shall ensure that at least two (2) seats shall be allotted for the election of independent directors as required by the Securities Regulation Code and the Code of Corporate Governance.

Recent Sales of Unregistered or Exempt Securities Including Recent Issuance of Securities Constituting an Exempt Transaction

Not applicable.

Requirements under Section 49 of the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines

a. Description of the voting and vote tabulation procedures used in the 2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting

The Company has an effective shareholder voting mechanism which are included in the Company's By-laws, Manual on Corporate Governance and SEC Form 20-IS.

During the virtual Annual Stockholders' Meeting held on 10 December 2021 (the "2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting"), only stockholders of record were entitled to notice and to vote at the 2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting. The common stock voted on matters scheduled to be taken up at the 2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting, with each share being entitled to cast one vote for each share of stock held as of the established record date of 10 November 2021, except in the election of directors where one share is entitled to as many votes as there are Directors to be elected.

The votes of the stockholders registered as present in the online meeting remotely or by proxy, or voting in absentia, were counted by the Stock Transfer Agent of the Company. The Office of the Corporate Secretary and the Stock Transfer Agent validated the results during the proxy validation date.

b. Record of the questions asked and answers given during the 2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting

The stockholders were given the opportunity to ask questions during the 2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting and the Company answered the same.

Some questions raised from a stockholder were "What is the status of our operation for Cagayan and what is the status also for Indonesia operation? Are the ships already in Cagayan?"

The President, Mr. Vittorio Paulo P. Lim, entertained the questions He answered and clarified that there is no operation yet, but the ship and equipment are already onsite and ready to start. He added "The ship is already in Cagayan but still waiting for the procurement of the safety equipment which hopefully comes by early next year in time for operation in March and April. As you know, the waves from December to about February are actually very big so we cannot operate during this time. The earliest we can operate based on the prospectus that we have sent to the PSE during our follow-on offering will be on March or April next year but the MB Siphon Vessel I that we purchased, is already on site in Cagayan so hopefully once weather is clear we will be able to operate as soon as possible, once all the equipment are ready."

c. Matters discussed and resolutions reached during the 2021 Annual Stockholders' Meeting

The following are the matters discussed and resolutions reached for the 2021 Annual Stockholders Meeting:

General & Administrative Costs

The Group's general & administrative costs increased by 193.08% which was primarily due to the listing fees pertaining to the follow-on offering and the listing of additional shares.

Finance Income

Total interest income increased by 655.62% arising from higher cash balance from the proceeds in the follow-on offering.

Finance costs

The 244.90% increase in interest is correlated to the additional interest-bearing loans and borrowings.

Share in Net Earnings of Associate

The amount pertains to the 49% share in net earnings of PBO. Details of PBO's earnings comprise or an impairment reversal of its shipping vessel.

Profit Before Tax

The Group reported a profit for the year which was attributable to the share in net earnings of PBO. The earnings are related from the reversal of impairment from its shipping vessel and not from current operations.

Income Tax Benefit

Income tax benefit increased due the recognized deferred tax benefits from the Group's net operating losses carried over and from ECL impairment on its receivables from related parties.
